Monday, September 2*d*, 1745. [Numb. 597]

From the Univerſal Spectator.

THE Importance of Education muſt be allow'd of the utmoſt Service to Youth, by forming their Judgments, and inſtilling thoſe Ideas, which ought to be the Rule of their future Conduct. How ſhocking then is it to conſider, that many of our modern young Ladies are deficient in this material Point? That their Knowledge ſhould extend no farther than knowing how to dreſs and dance well, and where a Patch may be placed to Advantage? This is often productive of the greateſt Unhappineſs; for when theſe Ladies marry, without any other Accompliſhment than a pretty Foot, which (being the moſt volatile) ought to be eſteem'd the leaſt Qualification, tho' ever ſo charming, in what a ſad Condition is the poor Husband? Inſtead of a Friend to alleviate any Misfortune that may befal him, ſhe is a continual Torment; always anxious after Baubles, 'till at laſt ſhe becomes inſufferable: And here a Separation is the only Thing that can yield him any Quiet; when if her Parents or Guardians had taken due Care of her Education, all this might have been prevented. For thus prepar'd, ſhe would not be incident to the many Crafts of our Sex, and would learn not to prefer a gay Coat to a Man of Senſe.

How amiable is the Oppoſite of the foregoing Character? To ſee Prudence with Complaiſance and good Nature, in a Form ſo pleaſing and agreeable, attended with a Sweetneſs which the wiſeſt Men are incapable of attaining!

The following Contraſt will be no improper Concluſion.

The vain Coquet, by ſtudied Arts,
Endeavours to trapan our Hearts:
At Operas, Ridottos, Plays,
She could attend whole Nights and Days:
Trifling her Time and Care employs,
Nor can ſhe taſte ſubſtantial Joys.
This is the Buſineſs of her Sphere,
And all her Knowledge centers here.
But ſee Mirenda, prudent Maid,
Centring'd in Reaſon's ſolid Aid:
From Foibles of her Sex refin'd,
To Others Failings wiſely blind:
Her Virtue's in her Conduct ſeen;
No Self Conceit does intervene:
Tho' Heav'n has form'd her all that's
Yet is her Mind her only Care; [fair,
With manly Senſe her Soul ſhe decks,
And ſhines ſuperior to her Sex

LONDON, March 19

YESTERDAY Morning early died, at his Houſe in Arlington-ſtreet, after a tedious Illneſs borne with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Conſtancy, the Rt. Honourable ROBERT Earl of ORFORD. Who, to all the Qualities requiſite to adorn the higheſt Station, added all the Vertues which could render a Man valuable in private Life: In Power without Pride; in his Retreat, without Reſentment: He lived revered and admired; he died lamented and beloved. What would Ambition more! And what, while we regard Truth can be ſaid leſs.

March 27. Marſhal Belle-Iſle has taken the Dutcheſs of Northumberland's Houſe near Wincheſter, which is ordered to be got in Readineſs for his Reception.

Dublin, April 14. Extract of a Letter from London, dated April 2.

— "The Parliamentary Enquiry into the Conduct of the Admirals Matthews and Leſtock, is now become the moſt ſerious Affair. I ſhall ſay nothing to the Prejudice of either of them; but, the Nation, with juſt Reaſon, is highly exaſperated at the Miſcarriage of that great Event, which (had Juſtice been done to England) would inevitably have deſtroyed the Fleets of France and Spain, as may plainly be ſeen by a Plan of that Sea Fight, which has been ſo much examined by Parliament, and is now got abroad, and publiſhed by Authority. This Plan hath done Mr. Leſtock more Prejudice than all the Papers that have been written againſt him, and is ſo circumſtantially done, that you not only ſee all the Ships on the Sea in this Engagement, but can tell their Commanders, Number of Guns and Situation in the Fight. They talk here of Expulſions, Court Martials, Dead Warrants, Halters, &c.

London, April 11. It is now currently talked that Orders are ſent from the Admiralty to Admiral Rowley, to confine ſeveral Captains, who are charged with neglect of their Duty in the late Engagement off Toulon, 'till they can conveniently be ſent home.

The Charming Suſan, Scott from South Carolina for London, is taken by the French, and carried into Rochelle.

The Lords of the Admiralty have order'd the London Man of War, a firſt Rate to be rebuilt at Portſmouth.

April 16. On Saturday came Advice from Portſmouth, that his Majeſty's Ship the New-Caſtle, Capt. Watkins, from Gibraltar and Port mahon, is arrived there and has on Board Capt Goſcelyne, with near 20 Lieutenants and other Officers who are come to give Evidence relating to the Action off Toulon, but Capt. Norris was left at Gibraltar.

April 20. Letters from Montauban in Dauphiny bring us certain Advice, that a Miniſter, preaching to a large Congregation of Proteſtants in that Neighbourhood, was taken, hang'd and his Head put upon a Poſt at the Place where he was preaching, and 300 Men and Women carried to the Tower of Toulouſe; on which their Brethren aſſembled to the Number of about 7000, headed by a Nobleman well ſkill'd in the Art of War, with a View of reſcuing the Priſoners. Upon which the Government of the Province got together Four Regiments in order to fruſtrate their Deſign. The Proteſtants, as theſe Troops were approaching them, laid an Ambuſh in a Wood of half their Army, and ſtuck'd their Face, 'till they perceived the King's Troops had paſſed the Ambuſh, when they ſurrounded them, and cut them all off, except 400, who eſcaped. The Loſs to the Proteſtants was only ſix Men killed, and Sixty two wounded.

There are certain Advices from Italy, that the King of Sardinia has demanded an abſolute Explication from the Republick of Genoa, in the Space of three Days, as to what Part ſhe will take in the preſent Troubles.

On Thurſday the Lords of the Admiralty appointed Captain Mitchel to be Captain of the Rupert Man of War of 60 Guns, in the Room of Capt Ambroſe.

Whitehall, April 20. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint his Grace John Duke of Bedford, the Right Honourable John Earl of Sandwich, Archibald Hamilton, Eſq; commonly called Lord Archibald Hamilton, and Vere Beauclerk, Eſq; commonly called Lord Vere Beauclerk, George Anſon, and George Grenville, Eſqrs. and the Honourable Henry Legge, to be Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and all the Dominions, Iſlands and Territories thereunto reſpectively belonging.

London, April 23. His Majeſty was pleas'd to make the following Anſwer to the Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons on Thurſday laſt.

'I will give Orders for the ſpeedy and 'effectual holding of Courts Martial ac'cording to your Deſire; I am ſenſible 'how much depends on the preſerving an 'exact Diſcipline in the Fleet, and of the 'Neceſſity of bringing to Juſtice ſuch as 'have have fail'd in their Duty on this important Occasion.

We are assur'd, that the poor suffering Protestants in the Kingdom of France, have caus'd to be drawn up and laid before his Majesty, a State of the miserable Condition in which the Protestant Religion now stands in that Kingdom.

Mr. Timothy,

YOU are desired to let the Publick know, whether the Letters J S in the last Gazette stand for J. S—v—ge, Jo Simple, Jo Spiteful, Jo Surly, or John at Styles.

CHARLES TOWN, Sept. 2.

On Thursday last arrived here Capt. Carle in 18 Days from Antigua. By whom we learn, that two Days before he left St John's, a 20 Gun Ship brought in a Dutch Sloop from Curacoa, by which they were inform'd as follows, — That Captain Fowles in his Majesty's Ship the Dreadnought, being on a Cruize, met with the Two only French Men left at Martinico by the Chevalier De Caylus, which he had the good Fortune to take, and carried them into Curacoa; the Engagement was very hot on both Sides and desperate, the two French Captains and a great Number of Men being kill'd before they struck, and Capt Fowles had kill'd and wounded upwards of 140 Men. The Dreadnought had 60 Guns and 450 Men; the French Men of War, one 32 Guns, 320 Men, the other 36 Guns and 360 Men.

This Day arrived Capt. Hammond, in 29 Days from Jamaica; he came out with a large Fleet, under Convoy of Admiral Davers's whole Squadron, who are gone on a Cruize. A French Privateer from under Hostagus took a Rhode Island Sloop out of the Fleet.
